Checks are also welcome, made out to FUMC with "apple tree project" in the memo line. Thank you!

CANDYGRAMS!

Send a sweet treat to friends, family, Sunday School teachers, or the whole church! The Youth Handbells are selling candygrams for $1 each to raise funds for their summer workshop trip to Lake Junaluska. Look for tables during Sunday morning fellowship/snack time, and during WNF. We will make sure they are delivered before Valentine's Day!

NOW is the time!

How can we, as a church, move forward and evolve in order to keep our ministry effective and engaging? We want to be a church that respects its traditions, but which is also able to grow and adapt in a way to be meaningful for the next generation. Join the discussion taking place on Wednesday Nights! This week, Leslye Ames and Jerry Cunningham will lead us as we take a look at our worship and witness ministries. This will include: music and other elements of worship, prayer, and offering. We need input from all of our members, from across generations, and particularly from those who feel as though they have unmet needs! The time is NOW to move toward our future!

RIVER REGION SACRED MUSIC FESTIVAL

The Festival Choir, of which several in our church are members, will be presenting a free concert of sacred music in a variety of styles at the 4th Annual River Region Sacred Music Festival. Two free performances will be held at Prattville's First Presbyterian Church: Feb. 17 at 6:30 pm and Feb. 18 at 3:00 pm. Contact Steve Lee for more information (334-365-6387).
